

Asset Status Color Coding Legend

Within the Assets Module, a color coding system is used visually indicate the status of an asset and their tasks. The table below is a legend for the Assets Module.

Asset and Task Status Legend - Assets Module
Icon	Meaning
	A green status icon in the Assets Module indicates that a task is current and up to date.
	A yellow status icon in the Assets Module is a warning that a deadline is upcoming.
	A red status icon in the Assets Module indicates that a task is past due.
	A blue status icon in the Assets Module indicates that a task has been deferred.
	A grey status icon in the Assets Module indicates that an asset or component is out of service. Any subcomponent would also be archived.
	A white status icon in the Assets Module indicates that an asset or component is archived. Any subcomponent would also be archived.
	A purple status icon in the Assets Module indicates that a before task linked to a deferred corrective action.
	A yellow triangle status icon in the Assets Module is a warning that a critical item has an upcoming deadline
	A red triangle status icon in the Assets Module indicates that a critical item is past due.

Revision #2

Created 2026-01-09 19:38:10 UTC by Mitzi Orkus

Updated 2026-01-14 20:21:23 UTC by Mitzi Orkus