

Comments Module

The Comments Module is an internal support module that allows other modules to quickly incorporate a comment feature. Users don't have access to the module directly but would use it when a supported module incorporates it. As it functions as a helper module for other modules, a user will not see this on the Main Menu.